THEIR THIRD DAY'S SESSION.

Proceedings of the Grand Ledge-Past Dictatorship- Economical Measures Introduced-

Reports Received-Banquet, &c., &c. The Grand Lodge Knights of Honor met yesterday promptly at 10 A. M. and stuck steadily to work all day, with only a recess for dinner, until (o'clock in the afternoon, when, having completed its labors, it adjourned. It is a working body, holding all-day and night sessions until near midnight, and gets through with a great deal of business, the larger part of which is of a financial character. As every member of the order holds a certificate of $2,000 on his life, the organization in Virginia has to look after $6,000,000 of insurance, besides attending to the man-agement of their weekly-benefit feature. Hence the business that is required of Death of Mr. T. L. Crouch.

Mr. T. L. Crouch died yesterday at his residence, No. 118 west Clay street, after an illness of only about two days. He was a son of Col. Richard Crouch, Sr., and a brother of Dr. R. G. Crouch. During the war he was a gallant soldier in the cavalry service of the Confederate army. For a long time he was a clerk in the Richmond office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, a severe injury by the fall of a horse, which he was riding in a gentlemen's hurdle race at the Fair-grounds. After that he was in various employments, and for a good while lived at Atlanta, Ga. Some months ago he was a temporary clerk in the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts. He married a daughter of Dr. Jennings, of Hampton. The deceased was an up-right and manly citizen, a kind and good friend, and all who ever had the pleasure of his acquaintance will regret to hear of his death. The deceased belonged to a M. M. Lodge here, but demitting to an Atlanta (Ga.) lodge, was not a member Captain Gee and the South Atlantic and Danville Railroad.

Captain John A. Gee, who has lived in Manchester and been connected with the transportation department of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company for a number of years past, has accepted the position of general superintendent of the South Atlantic and Danville Railroad Company. This road, when completed, will run from Claremont to Danville.

This appointment is a well-merited compliment to Captain Gee's worth. He is an estimable gentleman and is thoroughly acquainted with the railroad business. During his connection with the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, which extends over about fifteen years, Captain Gee has received several promotions, and is now travelling passenger agent. He will sever his connection with this company as soon as his successor is appointed, and will have his office for the present at

PREPARING FOR THE BATTLE.

Meeting at fanger Hall Last Night-Consel Elected-Committee to Wait on Jad. Atkins, &c.

The Liquor-Dealers' Protective Association held a meeting at Sanger Hall last night, and upwards of a huadred of its members were present. The object of the gathering was to hear reports of committees and to discuss the liquor question in its various phases. There was a liberal in-terchange of views. All who spoke deprecated anything that smacked of aggressiveness, but urged the importance of thorough organization in order to be able to meet any move the Local-Optionists might make. Two of the most important things done were the election of Mr. C. V. Meredith as counsel of the Association and the appointment of a committee to wait on Judge Atkins to ask the privilege of s-rutinizing any petition that may be presented to him as eng the ordering of an elec-tion to see that the signatures thereto are genuin and that the signers are qualified voters of the city. It also adopted a resolution inviting the superintendents of the various lines of transportation running into the city to be present at the next meeting of the Association to give their views as to how Richmond and the State have already been affected and are likely to be affected in the future by the passage
